Staff and volunteers must not:

- ignore or disregard any suspected or disclosed child abuse
- develop any 'special' relationships with children that could be seen as favouritism (for example, the offering of gifts or special treatment for specific children)
- exhibit behaviours with children which may be construed as unnecessarily physical (eg: inappropriate sitting on laps. Sitting on laps could be appropriate sometime, eg: while reading a storybook to a small child in an open plan area)
- put children at risk of abuse (eg: by locking doors, leaving them alone with an unknown person)

 - express personal views on cultures, race or sexuality in the presence of children
 - discriminate against any child, including because of culture, race, ethnicity or disability
 - have contact with a child or their family outside of our organisation without leadership knowledge and/or consent (eg: no babysitting). Accidental contact, such as seeing people in the street, is appropriate
 - have any online contact with a child (social media, personal email, instant messaging) unless necessary – (providing families with e-newsletters, classroom sites)
